

Login Page:

- There will be a welcome message for users.
- Fields to enter a username and password.
- A button to submit the entered credentials to try logging in.

In addition to these, a button or link should be placed on the homepage of the site that allows users to reach this page, as well as a sign out button placed somewhere easily accessible on every page.